

Silent Generation

Silent Theory

Oh yea

Get the hell out of my way
Lead me back to the city
Full of blood, sweat, and tears
A place for my fears
Show me my salvation
From my own desecration
Now it is my time
I'm walking a fine line

Take me away
Take me away, my life's gone astray
Crying today
Cry for me today and then go away
Fly me away
Fly me away from yesterday
Leaving today
I'm leaving today and I'm never coming back

Life's burning faster
And I'm craving disaster
Wrapped up against me
Step up and you'll see
Say goodbye faded nation
We are Silent Generation
'S time for a new sound
And I'm screaming now loud

Take me away
Take me away, my life's gone astray
Crying today
Cry for me today and then go away
Fly me away
Fly me away from yesterday
Leaving today
I'm leaving today and I'm never coming back

Oh yea!

Take me away
Take me away, my life's gone astray
Crying today
Cry for me today and then go away
Fly me away
Fly me away from yesterday
Leaving today
I'm leaving today and I'm never coming back
