

Incredible

Silk

La la la la la de da la la [x4]
If vine what your name should be
With your beauty you can part the red sea
You're as precious as some real red silk
And baby when our eyes touch it was heart felt
Everything I say the words I speak girl you know it was truth
(please believe it)
Girl I give my life, girl I sacrifice, everything I have is for you
(This whole world I'll give to you)
Baby you're incredible and your body so remarkable
And your sex is so sensational
That's what you [x4] are to me
You my nation and your summon to me
Don't need no damn jury
Even Ray Charles could see
You best report (report to my bedroom baby)

(Report) right now, ooooooooooh
It's time for some love making
Break out those
Sony videotapes
For some love taping

Lady you're incredible
And your body so remarkable
And your sex is so sensational
That's what you [x4] are to me
