

The Daughter Of The Sun

Silke Bischoff

Haunted by the mirrors of 88 when Satan was right here on earth
I love you girl till the end of time
We were the children of the moon
Pale and blind defeated by the evil one
I love you girl till the end of time

I don't believe in Jesus Christ
There's no god where I am,
but I can feel your love inside
I believe in you

You're here in my heart
You're here in my mind

You will never die
You will never die

Sorrows so much sorrows
I'll never forget you
I'll never forget you my love
Haunted by the memories of 88
A fire is burning in my heart
I believe in you
Till the end of time
Till the end of time

I don't believe in Jesus Christ
There's no god where I'am
But I can feel your love inside
I believe in you

Sorrows so much sorrows

You will never die
