

The Devil's Teeth

Silke Bischoff

The Devil's teeth laughing in the night of a pale moon content with blood darkness is our only friend in the kingdom of decay Here it comes again boy, you're lonely and paranoid who is the next one? fk you man!
Take your wings and fly above the mountains of adying planet discover the secrets of the flesh no silent wishes anymore
Here it comes again boy, you're lonely and paranoid
who is the next one? fk you man!
Tell me would you ever pull the trigger on a last trip to hell
tell me would you ever pull the trigger and the world is drowned in blood The devil's teeth laughing in the wind the crying of arising age the secrets are unveiled, your dreams become real
