Silver End

Wake up
Wake up
The time you seek is now
Don't blame what you can't control
Don't bother thinking how
Stand up
Stand up
Get on your own two feet
Accept the challenge given
Leave nothing incomplete
Step into the crossfire
Take this
Break it in half
(move on and decide your direction)
Fire
Spreading though grass
(avoid the reflection)
Embrace the friction
And find addiction to life
Be free and arise
Be free and arise
Open
Your eyes
It's finally at hand
So catch whatever you can
Before it turns to sand
Step up
Step in
And don't you dare to flee
Use all your inner passion
And crave for this to be
So enter the battlefield
Step into the crossfire
Take this
Break it in half
(move on and decide your direction)
Fire
Spreading though grass
(avoid the reflection)
Embrace the friction
And find addiction to life
Be free and arise
Be free and arise
