

Pirates

Silver End

Through the storm
We set sail
Believe me I'll feed you
To the fish if you fail
The course is set
The race will begin
Diamonds are forever
May the best man win
We do whatever it takes
However it breaks
We rattle the cages
Try to get in our way
And I'll kill you
Pay attention
To these words I mention
There's a bullet
Heading towards
Your direction
Be prepared to
Fight me
To put on my crown
If not successful
Pray to god cause
The pirates will
Hunt you down
A shadow rises
The captain will lead
A cold hearted crew
That shares a bottomless greed
The palm is shaking
At the sound of a gun
A black mist surrounds you
There's is nowhere to run
Pay attention
To these words I mention
There's a bullet
Heading towards
Your direction
Be prepared to
Fight me
To put on my crown
If not successful
Pray to god cause
The pirates will
Hunt you down
The ocean is where I'm Coming home
Exploring the
And craving the Unknown
Every corner of the seven seas
Belong to me and the pirates
Pirates
