

The Gate

Silver End

Hopeless future
Hopeless past
Heading forward and rewinding
Heaven help me
I've lost my mind
Anger takes over
Darkness fills the broken heart
The simplest logic is breaking apart
I won't walk into the
Gates of hell just yet
Though it's where I belong
You won't drag me to the
Underworld just yet
Though it's where I'm from
Endless passion
Endless belief
Looking up as we're descending
Heaven help me
I've found myself
Anger is tearing within me
The light I trusted to guide the way
Burned out forever defaced, and led astray
I won't walk into the
Gates of hell just yet
Though it's where I belong
You won't drag me to the
Underworld just yet
Though it's where I'm from
Wake up, and face reality
Wake up
The monster inside once again
Once again
Darkness fills the shattered heart
The simplest logic is breaking apart
I won't walk into the
Gates of hell just yet
Though it's where I belong
You won't drag me to the
Underworld just yet
Though it's where I'm from
Where I'm from *3
(the monster inside once again)
