

Cut and Run

Silverstein

Lay down on my back
Knock me over like a heart attack
Lay down all my bets
Can't change it

Ooh
I've been dying to tell you to cut and run
Ooh
I've been dying to tell you to cut and run

I know mistakes are made
Took me over like a tidal wave
I know I won't be saved
And I can't change it

I don't feel anything anymore
One by one, things I've done come crashing down
But hell has an open door
And I can't change it

Ooh
I've been dying to tell you to cut and run
Ooh
I've been dying to tell you to cut and run

You said it's just what I needed
All the same places, all the same demons
You said it's just what I needed
All the same places, all the same demons

You said it's just what I needed
I never said that I listened to reasons
All the same places, all the same demons
All the same mistakes til my heart stops beating

Ooh
I've been dying to tell you to cut and run
Ooh
I've been dying to tell you to cut and run
Ooh
I've been dying to tell you to cut and run
Ooh
I've been dying to tell you to cut and run
