

I Love You But I Have to Let You Go

Silverstein

I love you but I have to
Let you go
I love you but I have to
Let you go

I know who I am
I can't make you understand
And I know what I'm not

I love you but I have to
Let you go
I love you but I have to
Let you go

I'll sink the memories
To the bottom of the sea
And one day, I'll forget
