

Madness

Silverstein

I think we've been here before
We do it to ourselves
In the eye of the storm
But it feels like hell
Ignoring the signs
We just keep doing the same damn thing
Yeah

Over and over we're at it again
I can't tell if it's the start or the end
Over and over we're at it again
Now I'm talking back to the voice in my head like

You, you, you know
It's too fast
Too close
This isn't love
This is madness
You, you, you know
Too far gone
So it goes
This isn't love
This is madness

How many times is enough
Where do I draw the line?
Cause when it feels like trust
It gets me every time
Deep down I know better
But I just keep letting you twist the knife
Yeah

Over and over we're at it again
I can't tell if it's the start or the end
Over and over we're at it again
Now I'm talking back to the voice in my head like

You, you, you know
It's too fast
Too close
This isn't love
This is madness
You, you, you know
Too far gone
So it goes
This isn't love
This is madness

Romantic ambulance chaser
Fuck pen, let's write in eraser
And when it's all gone I'll be fine
I thought last time was the last time

I took my heart back, and no you can't have it
This isn't love, it's straight out of madness
Doing drugs, our love was a habit
Your drug is good, but I am an addict

I get it
I'm a romantic ambulance chaser
And when it's all gone I'll be alright
But it's never the last time

I had enough, it's time to beat this habit
I'm growing cold, I'm caught in your madness
Soon enough, you'll only end tragic
I hear your voice, the comfort in sadness

Over and over we're at it again

You, you, you know
It's too fast
Too close
This isn't love
This is madness
You, you, you know
Too far gone
So it goes
This isn't love
This is madness

(It's madness)
This isn't love, this is madness
