

Pits + Poisoned Apples

Silverstein

If I never had a point
Then what am I driving home?
I push through all the bullshit
Just waiting for the fall

Give an inch (You want a foot)
Give an inch (You want a foot)
Give an inch (You want a foot)
I can't take it
Give an inch (You want a foot)
Give an inch (You want a foot)
Give an inch (You want a foot)
I can't take it now
Not at this time in my life

It's not enough for me to be who I am
It's never enough for you to try to understand
So, I'll stop trying to prove something that I can't
Cause I'll never get through to you
It's not enough for me to be who I am
It's never enough for you to try to understand
So, I'll stop trying to prove something that I can't
Cause I'll never get through to you
