Shape Shift

Silverstein

Shape shift till you disappear
A secret handshake looking in the mirror
You're losing touch with the side of yourself
That knows the difference between heaven and hell

A cheap trick that you did too much
You wanted more but you didn't care what
Now I don't know if there's a difference between
Who you are and who you pretend to be

I never stood a chance here, did I?
You got me in a trance with another line
I never stood a chance here, did I?

Do you even listen to yourself
When you get caught up talking so untrue?
Nothing you could say to me now
It's too late for honest cause I'll never believe in you
Cause I'll never believe in you

You're getting good at terrible thing
For a second got the world on a string
I only see what you want me to see
Blurring the lines between fame and infamy

I never stood a chance here, did I?
You got me in a trance with another line
I never stood a chance here, did I?

Do you even listen to yourself
When you get caught up talking so untrue?
Nothing you could ever say to me now
It's too late for honest cause I'll never believe in you
Cause I'll never believe in you

I never stood a chance here, did I?
You got me in a trance with another line
I never stood a chance here, did I?

(Do you) even listen to yourself
When you get caught up talking so untrue?
Nothing you could ever say to me now
It's too late for honest cause I'll never believe in you
Cause I'll never believe in you
I'll never believe it

I never stood a chance here, did I?
You got me in a trance with another line
I never stood a chance here, did I?
