

Simpatico

Silversun Pickups

Shivers up your spine, moving like a vine
Such a grand design, these little warning signs
Bathing in a glow, simpatico
And all these roots have leaves, brittle in the breeze

Catch one before they blow all away
Smashed together all the days
I'm keeping my eye on you the way
Here in the crossfade

Is this a bit too much? Kind of out of touch
And if we share the stage, time to disengage
Fazing out so slow, we're simpatico (Oh)
With all the truths we need, we hold secretly

Until they're overflowing all the way
Smashed together all the days
Separate the ways to make
Buried somewhere in the rain
I'm keeping my eye on you the way
Here in the crossfade

Take a second look, I haven't even said your name
Take a second look, I can't believe I'm only half way
Hey, hey, hey
All the way, all the way, ooh
All the way, all the way, ooh
All the way

If we're going all the way
Smashed together all the days
I'm keeping my eye on you the way
Here in the crossfade
