I can attack you in the pouring rain
Like the first murderer named Cain
Tote something like a sword cane
To never ever be found slain
I'm just kidding, just killing time
Stupid words are spinning round and round

We are all sinners by birth
Some things just shouldn't be unearthed
We are all not worth saving from death
But this doom isn't the worst
"We're all just strangers" is the most deplorable fact

One click to be friends
One click to the end
We have to think a lot to choose whom to depend on
Some people smile to be nice
Some people smile to be cold as ice

We are all sinners by birth
Some things just shouldn't be unearthed
We are all not worth saving from death
But this doom isn't the worst
"We're all just strangers" is the most deplorable fact

You better get ready before
Your girl stars to cry in a shrill voice
You know she won't get a thrill
This alert is real not a fire drill
Hear me now if you really don't want to be grilled

We should refuse to be swallowed
By unbearable sorrow and set new arrows
Tomorrow is a new day but surely
Your grace will decay

We live only once
That's why I try to be strong
We live only once
Who cares about my life?

We are all sinners by birth
Some things just shouldn't be unearthed
We are all not worth saving from death
But this doom isn't the worst
"We're all just strangers" is the most deplorable tact
