

Wake up, take a shit, smoke, caffeine, take a shower
Wake up, take a shit, smoke, caffeine, take a shower
Wake up, take a shit, smoke, caffeine, take a shower
Wake up, take a shit, smoke
It's fucking boring

Hypocrites always say "There's no border"
This generation is governed by disorder
Ah ah ah ah ah, you lie after lie

Don't know what you mean, don't know what you think
King and queen, they don't give us a wink
Don't know what you mean, don't know what you think
Your boat is going to sink

Time to get, get, get back to where we belong
Get, get, get out of your cell, ring a gong
They can't tell us what to do
It's boring, boring
Get, get, get back to where we belong
Get, get, get out of your cell, ring a gong
They can't tell us what to do
It's boring, fucking boring

They show up and give us a glass of water
When we find an oasis at last
They don't concern about future
Only care about things of the past

Don't know what you mean, don't know what you think
King and queen, they don't give us a wink
Don't know what you mean, don't know what you think
Your boat is going to sink

Time to get, get, get back to where we belong
Get, get, get out of your cell, ring a gong
They can't tell us what to do
It's boring, boring
Get, get, get back to where we belong
Get, get, get out of your cell, ring a gong
They can't tell us what to do
It's boring, fucking boring

It's boring, you're boring me to death you're boring me to death

Boring, bloody boring time
Boring, bloody boring time
Boring, bloody boring time
Boring, bloody boring time

Time to get, get, get back to where we belong
Get, get, get out of your cell, ring a gong
They can't tell us what to do
It's boring, boring
Get, get, get back to where we belong
Get, get, get out of a cell, ring a gong

They can't tell us what to do
It's boring, fucking boring
