

LET IT END

SiM

Why you're always talking like
"Let it end, let it end, it's the only way to defend yourself"
But it looks to me like
You're gonna pretend that you're godsend
Boo

Don't speak my name, you're my gasoline
Don't speak, play the game, don't be so obscene
I see a red laserpoint in the middle of your chest
Go get a bulletproof vest
You'll always be impressed only with yourself

"When I come around, it will be found
Like a flash, without a sound
When I come around, it will be found
Turn your lights down low"

"Let it end, let it end, let it end
Let it end, let it end, let it end
Before it takes you over from the inside out
You should kill the pain
Let it end, let it end, let it end"

It's already ended

Don't speak my name, this is the source of pain
Don't speak, play the game again and again
I don't need you to understand
It's like you can never change your motherland

"Let it end, let it end, let it end
Let it end, let it end, let it end
Before it takes you over from the inside out
You should kill the pain
Let it end, let it end, let it end"
Let it end

Shut up, say nothing at all

"When I come around, it will be found
Like a flash, without the sounds
When I come around, it will be found
Turn your lights down low"

"Let it end, let it end, let it end
Let it end, let it end, let it end
Before it takes you over from the inside out
You should kill the pain
Let it end, let it end, let it end"

Let it end, let it end
Let it end, let it end
It's already ended
