

Living in Pain

SIM

When your hope falls
You will beg me to come back and find you out
This is humanity
Look at yourself in the mirror if in doubt
When your clock strikes,
You will beg me to turn back the hands of time
Everyone cries at the last moment
Cops, cons and even king of mime

Let me out
Let me out of this cage

We're all fading
Now and forever, we can't flee from destiny
This is humanity
Look at yourself in the mirror if in doubt
We are waiting
Now and forever, waiting for a chance to quit
But everyone cries at the last moment
This contradiction keeps you alive

Do ya really wanna get out?
Do ya really wanna get out of this cage?

If you are tired of your life
You don't have to fake a smile
Live as you like to have the laugh in the end
Even though, we are living in pain
It's better than nothing

I don't know your fucking name
But I hope you're listening to me
Are you listening to me?

"Let me out" you beg me
Do you really wanna get out?
So, come out if you can
Come out if you really wanna get out
