NO SOLUTiON

SiM

There's no solution, wow wow oh, yeah
There's no solution, wow oh
There's no, no solution

The stuff you hold will never turn into gold
If you do what you like, say what you like
Getting old will never make you bold
If you do what you like, say what you like
Stop trying to control everything

Your dirty blood won't turn into blue
If you do what you like, say what you like
A film of dust in your brain will twist the truth
If you do what you like, say what you like
I know you thought you knew it

But there's no solution to make it better
Solution, wow oh
Can fortune tellers control the weather?
This is so ridiculous
Burn the letters, burn it to ashes
Nothing can last forever
Burn the letters, burn the letters, the world is a floating feather like thi s

The die has been cast, everything turns into past tense
If you do what you like, say what you like
Living in a rush is nonsense because results come last
If you do what you like, say what you like
The earth is the one which orbiting the sun
Stared down by T-rex, there's no chance to run

There's no solution to make it better
Solution, wow oh
Why can't fortune tellers seek out the hidden treasure?
Your fate is a floating feather like this

Lead me now

Lead me to the light
Now I need you to lead me to the light
How can I go through the darkest night
I don't even know who should I fight with Don't know it

Don't trust your sight, trust your sight, it makes you blind
Don't trust your sight, trust your sight, so close your eyes

But there's no solution to make it better
Solution, wow oh
Can fortune tellers control the weather?
This is so ridiculous
Burn the letters, burn it to ashes
Nothing can last forever
Burn the letters, the world is a floating feather like this
