

Not So Weak

SiM

Dazzling sunshine, tepid wine, a forgotten shrine
Sitting and waiting for the moment like a land mine
I've been counting every term of abuse
No worries, no damage, I'm truly amused by you

I'm not so strong, but I'm not so weak
I'm going to stand up and fight
With tears running down my cheeks
Yeah, I'm not so weak

Do not drink too much
Do not blink on an ice rink
Do not automatically click on a link
They turns our money into fur of a mink
Who told them how to hide the broken truth with black ink?
They're not a car, just tires
Who's pulling the wires?

I'm not so strong, but I'm not so weak
I'm going to stand up and fight
With tears running down my cheeks
Yeah, I'm not so weak

I'm going to sit down on your coffin
And drink a cup of coffee motherfucker

I don't have to be the strongest man
All I have to be is just stronger than you

I'm not so strong, but I'm not so weak
