PSYCHO

SiM

You're a psycho

When I finished my cigarette
You said that you could take me anywhere
Punk ass, it's too late to regret it
I don't even have a second to spare
Speak nothing, my fist's shaking
I don't need toiletries and supplements
Blah blah blah, blah blah blah blah
Here's my objection, hope you don't get bent out of shape!

You need to take a break, I know your smile is fake
Are you cra-cra-crazy?
This price for a pot? it's only a rip off
Are you cra-cra-crazy?
Wake up my friend, don't be an "ex"
So I ask you again, is this your way?

Why'd you order another cup of coffee?
How could you say "don't worry, take it from me"
I'm surprised you're persistent like a zombie
Okay, I'll say it again "speak nothing, my fist's shaking"
I don't need toiletries and supplements
Blah blah blah, blah blah blah blah
My bad, I should've never met you

Caution:
If you get a phone call from an old friend
For the first time in a long time
Don't meet up with them, this is gonna be the beginning of the end

You need to take a break, I know your smile is fake
Are you cra-cra-crazy?
This price for a pot? it's only a rip off
Are you cra-cra-crazy?
Wake up my friend, don't be an "ex"
So I ask you again, is this your way?

Wasting time is not a crime, at least it's not sublime
I don't mean to insult your philosophy
But your one-sided view is pathology
Are you crazy? you're really crazy
Why don't we end this conversation

I'm sorry but you're a psycho

You're a psycho like a missed typo
Let me out of this perpetual cycle
Speak nothing,
I hate to land a punch on your fucking face

This is the last time
Wake up my friend,
Please don't go crazy

You need to take a break, I know your smile is fake
Are you cra-cra-crazy?

This price for a pot? it's only a rip off
Are you cra-cra-crazy?
Wake up my friend, don't be an "ex"
So I ask you again, is this your way?

Okay, I'll choose another way
That's all, let me go

Just let me go
