

Teardrops

SiM

sometimes...

I hear something breaking into pieces at the bottom of my heart you know what I mean?

I feel love, loved by you (in the bottom of my heart) but it's confusing
just like my blood dripping from the ceiling the teardrops' washing out our feeling don't be afraid baby, it's getting dark soon too dark to see my tattoo just bury me alive (I'm breaking into the pieces) just bury me alive

ah... the sky is crying loud
ah... just for us

I'm thinking of you when you face the hard times, I wish to be with you but I can't so here I am singing through the night I'm just a "sound" that comes from the speaker to you

BOSS said "our mind can go anywhere" try not to bind your voices inside perspective is the key

ah... just for us

find your missing keys in the sunlight hide in the darkness, when you're tired to fight against the world, against yourself rain is for healing our damaged hearts

sky is washing us now with rain so don't you think it's a beautiful day today?
