

Turn Around

SiM

"Say nothing, you have to dance"

She knows everything you want to know
She can go everywhere you want to go
She saw everything that you really want to see
Who worries about a scary ghost
When eating toast near silent coast?
Every one is sick and tired of your fucking silly boast

And she wants to say it you
It's so simple and easy to do
You will understand it someday
Until that day comes, you better pray

She said "watch this, you gotta turn around"
(Or push me away)

"Say nothing, you have to dance"

She knows everything you want to know
She can go everywhere you want to go
She saw everything that you really want to see
Even if you smoke too much and drop dead tomorrow
She feels nothing and won't sink in sorrow
She'd rather tell you to return everything you borrowed

And she wants to say it to you
It's so simple and easy to do
You will understand it someday
Until that day comes, You better pray

She said "watch this, you gotta turn around"
(Or push me away)

Watch this

"Tomorrow is a new day"
Does it go on forever?
"We can't be separated"
Do you really think it goes on forever?
Because of you, you're fading away
Because of you, I'm falling down

Stop dancing and say something
Stop dancing and say something

Say nothing, you better pray

She said "watch this, you gotta turn around"
(Or push me away)
