

When the night falls,
I talk to moon that I'm scared.
Then told me that I have to forgive everyone,
I stared.

Kiss and say good bye its the same in the end.
Empty words let me behind.
Is the reason why I have no one to depend on just words, but's always in my mind

Tell me Its all over,
Yet to me, discover I will find out.

I need this more than any vitamin,
even if it is a forbidden fruit.
Our paradise disturbing by a ring,
We worried of a such a fragil thing

Tell me Its all over,
Yet to me, discover I will find out.

Tell me Its all over,
I'm seeking down into the ocean

I'm seeking down into the ocean
take me out for a time of distorsion
I hate to have a lack of emotions

I'm seeking down and take me out you're my vitamine
take me out
