

BITES THE DUST

Simi

AG Baby is your baby

It's 2AM and you're banging my door
Screaming my name and stomping the floor
Girl, I got neighbors, please don't wake em up
You're a such a gaslighter, stop acting up
Said I've been faithful but you seem unsure
Set me up with your friend, you're insecure
I took your f*cking bait now you're surprised
Did this to yourself now you wanna cry
You know I couldn't keep control
Was tipsy and I couldn't let go
And that's how the story unfolds
You get what you ask for baby
I should I've never done it I know
But you're the one responsible

So tell me baby
What do you mean that I f*cked this up?
What do you mean I betrayed your trust?
Another one bites the dust

Another one, another one

It's 3AM and I'm slamming your door

Why you have to disrespect me for?
All I ever did was try but
All you ever do is lie
You say that I set you up, baby, when you no be dog oh
You could have said no
But all that's water under bridge now
Find somebody else to deceive now
It is kinda hard to believe now
I ever fell for a boy like you
I deserve quality now
And you belong to the streets now
(No be your fault though)
'Cause I played myself
Boy when I played with you

What do you mean that I f*cked this up?
Yeah, you f*cked this up
What do you mean?
What do I mean?
Like you don't know what's up
Another one bites the dust

4AM shorty still outside my door
Yeah right
What the f*ck you take me for?
AG Baby is not your baby
