Simi

I don't who you are becoming anymore
I don't know when the guy I knew walk out the door
I don't know why, or what it is you are changing for Because no be so you do this thing before
It's funny how you promise me you will always hold me down
It's crazy that even now you said that I should never ever doub t
Please don't let me down
Don't change on me now
Please don't be a lie
My heart no fit take am
Please don't let me cry
Don't lose what I've found
Please don't let me down
My heart no fit take am o
I don't know if I am even strong enough
Come back to me, you've been missing long enough
Why you no see say it's already hard enough
And now it feels like I have almost had enough
But
It's funny how I know you are totally crazy about me baby
But even now, I wonder if I'm losing you to the crowd
Please don't let me down
Don't change on me now
Please don't be a lie
My heart no fit take am
Please don't let me cry
Don't lose what I've found
Please don't let me down
My heart no fit take am o
