

Stranger

Simi

I do the things that I never thought that I would do
I didn't think that love would turn me into a fool
I can not help myself
It's way too much for my mental health

Shey na love if it makes you do stupid things
Shey na love o when your nightmare is in your dreams
And now I'm compelled
To run and hide in my shell

'Cause now I just feel like a stranger
My heart e don put me for danger
I don't recognize who I am anymore
I can't ignore
Just how much I feel like a stranger
I lost myself waiting for change
I don't even know where I stand anymore
Is this love? No

E Wo aiye mi lode o
No, I am not okay o
Tell me, how did I find myself in this mess?
How can you be both the worst and the best?

Feels like I'm drowning
My heart is pounding
Nibo la fe gbe gba oo
This is why I am compelled
To run and hide in my shell

'Cause now I just feel like a stranger
My heart e don put me for danger
I don't recognize who I am anymore
I can't ignore
Just how much I feel like a stranger
I lost myself waiting for change
I don't even know where I stand anymore
Shey na love oo
Now I just feel like a stranger
My heart e don put me for danger
I don't recognize who I am anymore
Anymore

Feel like a stranger
Am I out of my mind?
'Cause I know that I tried
Waiting for change
They say love never dies
What a marvelous lie
I don't know anymore
Is this love?
Is this love?
