

Bones

Simon Curtis

Do you want me like I know that you do?
I see you staring from across the room
And if you need me like I can tell that you do
I'll show you all the nasty things I can do
Anticipating when you'll offer it up
Got cameras streaming, will the catalyst be
Reiterating, you got to keep it hush hush
We got to keep it so that nobody sees

When I see it in my mind, I don't want to
But then I see it with my eyes that I want to
I chose your bones
Got a feeling that I need to know
Come to see it in my mind, I don't want to
But then I see it with my eyes and I got to
I chose your bones
Got a feeling that I need to blow

I need a new pace
You just get one taste
A different flavour every day of the week
Get outta my face, it's my, my space
I'd let you on it if you weren't such a freak

When I see it in my mind, I don't want to
But then I see it with my eyes that I want to
I chose your bones
Got a feeling that I need to know
Come to see it in my mind, I don't want to
But then I see it with my eyes and I got to
I chose your bones
Got a feeling that I need to blow

When I see it in my mind, I don't want to
But then I see it with my eyes that I want to
I chose your bones
Got a feeling that I need to know
Come to see it in my mind, I don't want to
But then I see it with my eyes and I got to
I chose your bones
Got a feeling that I need to blow

I chose your bones
Got a feeling that I need to blow, blow
I chose your bones, need to blow

When I see it in my mind, I don't want to
But then I see it with my eyes that I want to
I chose your bones
Got a feeling that I need to know
Come to see it in my mind, I don't want to
But then I see it with my eyes and I got to
I chose your bones
Got a feeling that I need to blow

When I see it in my mind, I don't want to
But then I see it with my eyes that I want to

I chose your bones
Got a feeling that I need to know
Come to see it in my mind, I don't want to
But then I see it with my eyes and I got to
I chose your bones
Got a feeling that I need to blow
