

Casual Encounter

Simon Curtis

Sometimes I get needy
And must have some fulfillment
These nights I try meeting
A canvas to coat my pigment
No names and no number
Use me before we slumber

Do you really wanna meet me?
Interact, make a pact
There can be no strings attached
I need some physical affection
With no sense of circumspection
Can we do it so discreetly?
Come with haste, find a place
I don't wanna see your face
I need something to take me under
Like a casual encounter

Believe me, I don't care
Although I should be more cautious
Please find me, are you out there?
I know we can make a ruckus
Come follow, those willing
Curiosity you can't deny
The serious applicants need only reply

Do you really wanna meet me?
Interact, make a pact
There can be no strings attached
I need some physical affection
With no sense of circumspection
Can we do it so discreetly?
Come with haste, find a place
I don't wanna see your face
I need something to take me under
Like a casual encounter
