Flashback

If you wanna chase a dream
Then you better have a flashback
You gotta look back, knowing
If you wanna learn a beat
Then you're gonna have a flash back
And try to keep the past growing

Don't change and remember things
But there's always certain things will remain the same
Those days trying to find a place
Will never change the fact that the laughs are staged
So hear what you're gonna do
Persevere it down the path till you see it through
I feel what I beat you to is true love

(If you wanna learn a flashback)

If you wanna chase a dream
Then you better have a flashback
You gotta look back, knowing
If you wanna learn a beat
Then you're gonna have a flash back
And try to keep the past growing

Those chains set in where you stand
Take every opportunity by the hand
Look fast and in the past
Walk in and close it up 'cause it just won't last
I try lookin' to the sky
But the lesson that I needed didn't catch my eye
I past to rewind me why
Can you fly?

If you wanna chase a dream
Then you better have a flashback
You gotta look back knowing
If you wanna learn a beat
Then you're gonna have a flash back
And try to keep the past growing

If you want to chase a flashback
(If you wanna chase a dream)
Then you gotta look back, knowing
(Then you better have a flashback, flashback)
If you want to learn a flashback
(If you wanna chase a dream)
You gotta keep the past growing
(Then you better have a flashback, flashback)
