

Never Mind

Simon Webbe

Yeah

I never thought that I'd be here today
Talking 'bout how you just slipped away
Ain't it funny how the tides can turn back round
You, you were the soldier that I left behind
Two lovers in a firing line
Bullet words hit our hearts and dragged us down

Now I'm waiting till I hit the ground
Took a punch then it came back around
All the boys know I'm out for the count
But they're wanting me to hear them out

They say, "Never mind, never mind, never mind
There's plenty more to find, she's not one of a kind"
But they don't know what I'm feeling inside
There's a million other girls but they don't have your eyes
But you're gonna do whatever you're gonna do
Now there ain't no chains that are holding you
So baby fly, it's alright, I'll be fine
And you'll always be that woman in the back of my mind

Now that you're gone, you're gone
I just gotta move on, move on
Now that you're gone, you're gone
And you'll always be that woman in the back of my mind

Love, ain't it funny how it comes and goes
Like summer sun and winter snows
I guess you never know your heart until the lows
Well we, we were always 'bout to say goodbye
Two lovers in a firing line
Bullet words hit our hearts and cracked our souls

Now I'm waiting till I hit the ground
Took a punch then it came back around
All the boys know I'm out for the count
But they're wanting me to hear them out

They all say, "Never mind, never mind, never mind
There's plenty more to find, she's not one of a kind"
But they don't know what I'm feeling inside
There's a million other girls but they don't have your eyes
But you're gonna do whatever you're gonna do
Now there ain't no chains that are holding you
So baby fly, it's alright, I'll be fine
And you'll always be that woman in the back of my mind

Now that you're gone, you're gone
I just gotta move on, move on
Now that you're gone, you're gone
And you'll always be that woman in the back of my mind

It's not about who is to blame
But there's no smoke without a flame
It takes two to play the game

What a shame, what a shame
As the tears roll down your face
They fell just like the rain
Years of love went down the drain
What a shame, what a shame

They all say, "Never mind, never mind, never mind
There's plenty more to find, she's not one of a kind"
But they don't know what I'm feeling inside
There's a million other girls but they don't have your eyes
But you're gonna do whatever you're gonna do
Now there ain't no chains that are holding you
So baby fly, it's alright, I'll be fine
And you'll always be that woman in the back of my mind

Now that you're gone, you're gone
I just gotta move on, move on
Now that you're gone, you're gone
And you'll always be that woman in the back of my mind
