

Vermillion Dreams

Simone Simons

Just out of reach, I linger near
You're speaking words I cannot hear
If you would only look my way
If you could see what I can't say

Like rainbows drifting in the sky
You're forever out of reach
I'm hoping for a word or a sign
I know I've lost my way
And still I wait

Vermillion dreams, burn on forever
Feed me the flame, I can't turn away
Vermillion dreams, bring us together
Here in the ashes I remain

The incantation of your name
Calls up a spell you cannot break
My heart bleeds red with every beat
I can't forget the fantasy

You'll never know a love like mine
Never know what we could be
Keep hoping for our stars to align
I know I've lost my way
And still I wait

Vermillion dreams, burn on forever
Feed me the flame, I can't turn away
Vermillion dreams, bring us together
Here in the ashes I remain

Red!
Like the passion in my eyes
Like the burning end of time
Like the fire of a love that never dies
Like the bloody war of kings
Like the heart and diamond queens
Like the blood inside, love we hide
Red! Red!
