

Act of Love

Simple Minds

Sweet angel call out
Don't wanna speak to no fool
Time to get under the spotlight
Time to ignore every rule

Then it came from above
An act of love
It was an act of love
Then it came from above
An act of love
It was an act of love

I had a white-hot fever, head in my hands
I was a born believer, head full of plans
Tell you, still I wanna tell you
Faith is my weapon, love is my shield
I have nothing to lose, so much to reveal
Tell you, still I wanna tell you
It was an act of love

We were up there in the good times
We walked on through the bad
We still shone when the lights went out
Tell you now, still I wanna tell you now

I had a white-hot fever, head in my hands
I was a born believer, head full of plans
Tell you, still, I wanna tell you
Faith is my weapon, love is my shield
I have nothing to lose, so much to reveal
White-hot fever, I'm still a born believer
It was an act of love

Tell you now
Still I wanna tell you now
Tell you now
It came in from above
Tell you now
Still I wanna tell you now
Tell you now
It came in from above
It was an act of love

Faith is my weapon, love is my shield
Got nothing to lose, so much to reveal
It was an act of love
Faith is my weapon, love is my shield
Got nothing to lose, so much to reveal
It was an act of love

I was a born believer
It was an act of love
