Face in the Sun

Simple Minds

It's ok to be lonely It's ok, still waiting for Well it's ok to feel you're the only Like a loaded gun just bound to explode Just like the story goes If you been raised To believe in your soul I'm sure you'll find your face Face in the sun Face in the sun Face in the sun Well it's ok to be loved with The way the sun shines above your face Well it's ok if you've had enough of this A lack of light been around for days Inside thinking of sunsets Leaving behind I hope I find my face Face in the sun Face in the sun Face in the sun I, I, I, I, I, I Face in the sun Face in the sun Face in the sun Face in the sun I hope you find it I, I, I, I, I, I I, I, I, I, I, I
