Let the world tremble
I will not be afraid
Uncertainty before me
I will not be moved
I have blessed assurance
Your word is true
Blessed assurance
My future secured

I know that will always win
Whatever comes my way
I know that I will always win
I'm victorious
In the name of the Lord
I'm victorious
In the name of the Lord

Foundations be shaken
I will not be afraid
Tongues may rise against me
I will not be moved
Thousands fall beside me
My life you preserve
Greater is He that's in me
Than he that's in the world

I know that I will always win Whatever comes my way
I know that I will always win
I'm victorious
In the name of the Lord
I'm victorious
In the name of the Lord

I was born for this
I was made for this
This is my moment
It's my time to shine
I was born for this
I was made for this
This is my moment
It's my time to shine
