

End In Praise

Sinach

The stakes may be high
But I look beyond it all
I praise You, I praise You
With the word in my heart
Mountains may rise
Strong winds may blow
Still I praise You
But I'll praise you
Just because I know

It will all always end in praise
No matter what I face
You have gone ahead and You worked it out for me
And we'll always end in praise
No matter what I face
You have gone ahead and You worked it out for me

The stakes may be high
But I look beyond it all
And I praise You, I praise You
With the word in my heart
Mountains may rise
Strong winds may blow
Still I praise You
But I'll praise you
Just because I know

It will all always end in praise
No matter what I face
You have gone ahead and You worked it out for me
It'll always end in praise
No matter what I face
You have gone ahead and You worked it out for me

I keep on praising Him, rejoicing
For we know the end from the beginning
Lift you voice, keep on praising
Yeah, rejoicing
So we know the end from the beginning

And I'll keep on praising Him, rejoicing
For I know the end from the beginning
I'll keep on praising Him, rejoicing
For I know the end from the beginning

Hallelujah
Hallelujah
I praise You Lord
Forevermore
Hallelujah
Hallelujah
I praise You Lord
Forevermore
Just because you know

It will all always end in praise
No matter what I face

You have gone ahead and You worked it out for me
No matter what I face
You have gone ahead and You worked it out for me
