

Tongues may rise against me
Persecution will come
I will not be moved I have blessed assurance
Whatever may come my way
Your Word is my anchor
You are light
You are life
You are truth

I declare that I am strong
With the strength of God in me
I mount up with wings as Eagle
I fly, I fly

Mountains may rise around me
Trails may come
I will not be moved I have blessed assurance
Whatever may come my way
Your Word is my anchor
You are light
You are life
You are truth

I fly
I fly
Above the mountains
High and lifted high

I hear stories of wars, hardship
I'm hard pressed on every side
None of these things move me
Because I stand on the rock that is higher than high
And I have a sound mind
I have dreams, visions, ideas that work
Even I can't stop me
Nothing can stop me
Cos I fly high above all situation... Yeah

I fly
Fly like an eagle
High and lifted high
