

Live To Die

Since October

I live to
i live to

Wasting the day away waiting for my own forgiveness but nothing will come of this cause it's something i can't give myself i know, i know, that i'm not perfect but i promise you this

Forever inside of me is a song my heart will never sing cause w ith it in harmony is my past always reminding me

I would sacrifice all my dreams and my loves
for eternal life
God I swear that's enough
i live to
i live to die

I know that's all i need remember that you promised me as the story reads when perfect sorrow bleeds and pours all over me so much that i can't see

for eternal life
i live to
i live to die
