

A Touch Of Hell

Sincere Engineer

The town I grew up in is always under construction
And I guess I'm like that too
I try to drive slow in this place I used to call home
When I'm just passing through

I know it ain't much, it's hard to tell
It's a little bit of heaven and a touch of hell
I know it ain't much, I just wanna see
What changed with this damn place and what changed with me

The town I grew up in, I need a new introduction
Everything around here is so new
I drove through the snow, nostalgic days and the friends I still know
I'm only here for a few

I know it ain't much, it's hard to tell
It's a little bit of heaven and a touch of hell
I know it ain't much, I just wanna see
What changed with this damn place
And what changed with me

So I hop on my mom's bike
Head to the park into town on the other side, on the other side
Under the streetlights and under the power lines
Zapping overhead, sun on my skin
Can't believe everything I did since the last time I was here
I took a train ride out to Elgin
Yeah, I took a train ride out to Elgin

I know it ain't much, it's hard to tell
It's a little bit of heaven and a touch of hell
I know it ain't much, I just wanna see
What changed with this damn place
And what changed with me

I know it ain't much, it's hard to tell
It's a little bit of heaven and a touch of hell
I know it ain't much, I just wanna see
What changed with this damn place
And what changed with me
