

Let You Down

Sincere Engineer

How often do you think about dying?
Cause it haunts me every time I sleep
So I just stay awake and watch cable TV

You're the king of bad timing
And I'm the queen of just getting by
I keep you up all night
Cause I don't want to let you down

Tonight I don't wanna fall asleep
All those vivid dreams of watching myself
Smash my face on the snowy concrete
Or the ones where I lose all my teeth
Or when I'm suffocating and I can't breathe

You're the king of bad timing
And I'm the queen of just getting by
I keep you up all night
Cause I don't want to let you down
