Shattering

Sincere Engineer

I'm gonna jump in Lake Michigan
And swim out as far as I can
You should come with me
You should come with me
I'm gonna jump in Lake Michigan
And swim out as far as I can
You should swim with me
You should swim with me
And we'll swim out as far as we can

When we reach the end, we'll start to descend
There's so much at the bottom to see
Empty bottles, broken glass
This is where we'll sleep
I'm just worn-out bed sheets, you won't miss me
I am nothing
I am nothing
I'm just an empty bottle shattering

I'm gonna jump in Lake Michigan
And swim out as far as I can
You should come with me
You should come with me
I'm gonna jump in Lake Michigan
And swim out as far as I can
You should swim with me
You should swim with me

I'm just an empty bottle shattering
Shattering [x7]
I'm just an empty bottle shattering
