

Coz living ain't living without you
I'm here but I'm not really here
And if loving will be loving without you
Then I know I don't wanna love again
Coz nothing ever feels the same
And I'm sure as hell I'm the one to blame
All I know is I tried my best to love

Well I been playing round
Situationshiping still can't figure out
Why I'm feeling nothing
Since you've been gone
I'm so far from myself

But I've had real good times
It's liberating when you're so free to fly
But when the day is ending I remember you
And I how truly felt

Coz living ain't living without you
I'm here but I'm not really here
And if loving will be loving without you
Then I know I don't wanna love again
Coz nothing ever feels the same
And I'm sure as hell I'm the one to blame
All I know is I tried my best to love

You (tried, tried)
You (I tried my best to love you)

Went to the cinema
To take my mind off thinkin bout where you are
But every story line is like a memory
Of you and me back then

And I've been trying hard as hell to fill my head
Tryna chase away the words you said
But like a ferris wheel it's going round instead
Don't go'

Coz living ain't living without you
I'm here but I'm not really here
And if loving will be loving without you
Then I know I don't wanna love again
Coz nothing ever feels the same
And I'm sure as hell I'm the one to blame
All I know is I tried my best to love

You (tried, tried)
You (I tried my best to love you)
You (tried, tried)
You (I tried my best to love you)
