Running away

I've been hanging out with runaways
Trying to figure out the next place we're gonna stay
We're like this as far as 2008, started out soft but got hard pretty quick
Bad gossip wants to stay alive so we're all gonna die when we're 25
Gonna save myself some years in help
Gonna die out here with my bank account

Now we're running away

We been going on this way to long
Breaking through the window
We think there is something right but it's wrong
Now I'm trying to forget it
There is a whole lot of shit that I want that I can't have
And to be honest you'll learn you'll get more pissed off with him about it
Yeah he asked me to stay but I'm running away

Hanging out with runaways

Yeah we're hanging out with runaways
Trying to figure out the next place we're gonna stay
Been like this since 1998, started out hard but got it soft pretty quick
Every gossip wants to stay alive so I'm gonna die out here when I'm 25
Gonna save myself some years in help
Gonna die out here with my bank accounts

Now I'm running away

They say; just, pray wait and listen...
Listen man we're not into forgiveness
Taking all my sins away we just can't afford to pay
They say; that just, pray, wait and listen
Listen man kids like us don't get forgiven
We're not going out this way

So we're running away

We been going this way, way to long
Yeah, we're trying to forget it
We knew this wasn't right when they said it was wrong, but I never believed it
There is a whole lot of shit that I want and I can't have
To be honest the older I get the more pissed off I get about it
Yeah they asked me to stay but I'm running away
