

Danger Zone

Sinner

Sinner, Stoner

[Spoken:]

Welcome to the danger zone

Runnin' to a land so dark full of pain

I'm feeling dirty, feelin' hot again

I got the miracles in my hands

Deliver me from evil

The sorcerer is planting his seed

Growing the fools and the victims he needs

His empire's covered by a black sky

The danger zone is in his eyes

[Chorus 1:]

Harder than diamonds

Face to face with his evil eyes

Harder than diamonds

I stand against his magic might

[Chorus 2:]

He's evil (evil, evil, evil)

So evil (evil, evil, evil)

It's a long way through the dark

Through the danger zone

He's evil (evil, evil, evil)

So evil (evil, evil, evil)

It's a long way through the dark

Danger zone

I was the stranger he needed to kill

I was the danger, I was the thrill

Demons of fire at his command

Flashes of lightning shot from his head

It was one minute before the dawn

Just one minute and his power'd be gone

I started runnin' I felt his pain

The sun came up, I'm gettin' hot again

[Chorus 1 & 2]

Through the danger zone
