

Nervous Little One

Sioen

Hey you, step aside
I can't stand you,
Tonight I want to banish you,
Move aside

Tell me what's the problem?
I can barely speak,
Besides I can't talk to you,
Suicide

Hey you, there's something that
I would really love to do
Turn me inside out,
I'm gonna find you
So we can settle this for good

There's a nervous little one stuck in me,
He's hiding somewhere
I don't know him all too well,
But I figure if I do he'll agree
To leave me alone and give me time
To find out who I am

Hey you
Hey you
Hey you
