

A Constant Reminder

SION

With reckless abandon
I scream into the empty
This is my Armageddon
I know you're not done with me
Emotions sedated
We will regret this

You can't prove me wrong
Prove me wrong
Betrayal deception
Mirrors lie
You see with no reflection

A constant reminder of what's been lost
Is this all that we're longing
All that we're longing for
The pain you created
Remains in scars

You kill what you create
You kill what you create

Disconnected yourself from the truth
And now I see right through you
Vanish and leave no trace, Guiltless
You kill what you create

A constant reminder of what's been lost
Is this all that we're longing
All that we're longing for
The pain you created
Remains in scars

Usually black the water
Is it everything you prayed for
There will be no forgiveness
Prove me wrong
You rot inside your skin
No surprise
Will in disguise again

A constant reminder of what's been lost
Is this all that we're longing
All that we're longing for
The pain you created
Remains in scars
All that we're longing for
