SION

K-Pop
Fake hype
Still these fuckin' Asians ain't shit right?
Tried to walk across the 8 miles
As we wake up we still at the same spot

America, this a fuckin' apocalypse
Believe it is a bliss, but really it is the opposite
We never been important no protagonist
Asians always represented surplusage

They barely talk about us dying on the news
I see those broken hearts trying to avoid the truth
But as hard as it is we gotta face it
All they care about is how they going to get rid of you

I am yellow and I got small eyes
Maybe my name just sounds like dishes falling on the ground

I ain't Jackie
Bruce Lee or any other name
I am a proud yella asian called Sion

Y'all ignorant
And y'all never changed
Devided my country and made em lose family and friends

Still y'all focus on exploiting the wrong believers
The American Dream is dead, only the rich believe it

Dissin' and cussin' on Asians and feelin' really funny
But going home and watchin' anime shoutout to dummy
Using thousands of products all made in China
Using electronics from all around Asia like Samsung and Sony

Silent revolution
My weapon is music
Ye that's all I got and all I need
I fuck 'em guns I don't abuse it
All I want is equal love like everyone deserves
We gotta speak up for the Asian identity to preserve
