

A dissonant tone breaks the silence
It's the buzz of my phone
Transmitted the jolt onto my hands
Xans running low, how should I fight back?
Oh, missed it again, anchored in distance
How should I reach your land?
Anxiety a trait, not a condition

Leave me in the dark
Hurts the more you ask
Don't you mind?

Avoid all of my thoughts
I don't want it to get up my throat
Avoid getting in touch
I'm already running out of it
Avoid all of my friends
I don't wanna see their eyes reflect
Avoid

I'm a frantic
So many thoughts in a static
Out of plastic
Words didn't make it to action
I've seen enough, how do I get rid of love?

Leave me in the dark
Hurts the more you ask
Don't you mind?

Avoid all of my thoughts
I don't want it to get up my throat
Avoid getting in touch
I'm already running out of it
Avoid all of my friends
I don't wanna see their eyes reflect
Avoid

Avoid
I don't want it to get up my throat
Avoid

Avoid all of my thoughts
I don't want it to get up my throat
Avoid getting in touch
I'm already running out of it
Avoid all of my friends
I don't wanna see their eyes reflect
Avoid

Avoid
Avoid
