SION

I need to break free from you
Need to let you
But you refuse to die

I feel your appetite
Eating me up inside

I'm dirty all on my face
Look what you have made
I told you to get away but you stayed and made my life a shame
I be regretting letting you into my soul
Every night I sleep I try to get you off my mind but you possessed me
I tryna wash out all the evidence diving into the ocean
But it just made it worse
Cause the water tasted like blood

Now, I feel the end of my life

Please oh lord
I don't wanna go down
I don't wanna go round

Unholy

I need to break free from you
Need to let in you
But you refuse to die

I see your appetite
Eating me up inside

Hello
Are you still afraid of me?
Even though I changed
Are you still the same old?
Hello
I know I have made the beast but I promise
Won't you please come back to me
