

You know I'm right
You are the prisoner
Now say goodbye
When the decision hurts
You wanted the weight of the world
But you're too innocent
You don't know that you are in hell
When you're living it

New life in this skyfall
Keep faith in the angels watching over you

You know I'm right
I can still read your mind
Even your light
Is hiding a darker side
I'll give you a place to confide
Still, you never speak
Salvation will not be denied
So give into me
So give into me

New life in this skyfall
Keep faith in the angels watching over you
If you ever took a chance then it's right now
New life in this skyfall

If you lose yourself
We can fly where we survive
Even when, even when it all comes crashing down
If you lose yourself
We can fly where we survive
Even when, even when it all comes crashing down

Keep the faith
Keep the faith
Keep the faith

New life in this skyfall
Keep faith in the angels watching over you
If you ever took a chance then it's right now
