

We Fall

Siouxsie and the Banshees

Screaming blue and tangerine
Come and join this crazy dream
Of vampire kites painted white
Trails of vampire kites torsos painted white

They're all around so don't make a sound
See spikes of sparkling green
See waves of tangerine
Please don't scream in this dream

See a tiny box of silver
See a flaming glove of amber
We start to fall
At the beginning of a fall

They say when you hit the bottom
You don't wake up at all
Not at all
We start to fall...
